GREAT INTEREST BEING DISPLAYED

In The Semi-weekly Bee's Mammoth Cave via Green River Contest.

LEADERS RUNNING NECK AND NECK

There is a great deal of interest being displayed in the Bee's Mammoth Cave via Green River contest on September 2nd. and the votes are pouring in by the hundreds, several changes are made in standing and several new entries are made.

The work is now in earnest and if the contestants continue to solicit subscriptions and renewals and clip coupons as they are now doing their votes will climb up to tens of thousands before the contest closes. This trip is well worth working for and we guarantee the five winners a week of solid comfort and enjoyment. Some fifteen or more names of young people from Earlington, Madisonville and Morton Gap have been received who will make this trip with us on Sept. 2nd. and this number will doubtless be swelled to thirty or more by Aug. 20th as the entire cost of the round trip from Earlington to the cave and via Green river steam "City of Evansville" board at the cave hotel both routes in the cave and railroad fare from Earlington to Evansville and return is only $17.50, this is really cheaper than staying at home and in addition to the delightful boat trip of 300 miles, the magnificent scenery along upper Green river you will have the pleasure and satisfaction of seeing one of the greatest natural wonders of the world, The Mammoth Cave of Kentucky.

Following are the names and standing of contestants to date. This information will be published in each issue of the paper until the contest closes:

JUDGE O'REAR POPULAR JURIST

Named by Republicans as Standard Bearer Amid Wild Enthusiasm

L. L. BRISTOW LIEU.

TENANT GOVERNOR

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET
Governor—E. C. O'Rear, of Montgomery county.

Lieutenant Governor—L. L. Bristow, of Scott county.

Auditor—L. W. Methurum, of Rockcastle county.

Secretary of State—A. J. Oliver, of Allen county.

Attorney General—Tom B. McGregor, of Marshall county.

Treasurer—Herman Monroe, of Louisville.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—T. W. Vinson, of Caldwell Co.

Commissioner of Agriculture—D. W. Clark, of Knox county.

Clerk of the Court of Appeals—C. N. Wilson, of the Eleventh district.

Amid the wildest enthusiasm E. C. O'Rear, of Montgomery county, was nominated by the republicans of Kentucky as their standard bearer in the campaign of 1911. Not a voice was raised in protest and not a hand was lifted to stem the tide that made the distinguished jurist his party's nominee for governor. The nomination was made in an O'Rear convention, a convention in which O'Rear alone was supreme.

From the moment that the convention assembled it was apparent to all that the one dominating figure would be Judge O'Rear. It is true that there were other leaders, men of influence and of high official position, but all were overshadowed by the personality of the man who, single-handed, had gone out to do battle for the cause of a progressive Kentucky and had won against odds that once threatened to overwhelm him.

O'Rear All the Way

It was O'Rear all the way. No other man save, perhaps, Senator Bradley, so completely dominated a Republican state convention in the history of the State. The word of O'Rear was law. His wish was the will of the convention and the result was that in every instance except one the ticket named had the hearty and unqualified approval of the nominee for Governor.

Time without number efforts were made to nominate candidates that did not enjoy the favor and approval of Judge O'Rear, but every effort proved futile. Time and again the opposition charged on the O'Rear fortifications, only to be slaughtered and repulsed. In the end the opposition withdrew from the field of battle, leaving O'Rear master of the situation, with sword unsheathed and forces unharmed.

O'Rear's Acceptance Speech

In his speech of acceptance Judge O'Rear denounced the liquor interests for their alleged activity in politics in Kentucky during the past few years, and declared that if elected Governor of Kentucky he would use every power vested in the office to drive the professional liquor lobbyist out of the State. Referring to Senator Bradley, the permanent chairman of the convention, Judge O'Rear said he was the greatest son of Kentucky and one of the greatest and ablest men who had ever occupied a seat in the halls of National Congress.

With his hand uplifted over the head of Senator Bradley, Judge O'Rear said he was one man now a member of the upper branch of the National Congress who could say that he was sent to that body, not through the corrupt influence of the liquor lobby, but in spite of it. During his bitter arraignment of the liquor interests Judge O'Rear said he knew its representatives were in hearing of his voice, it being characteristic of them, he said, to attend all political meetings with a view of controlling the delegates as they had for years controlled and corrupted the representatives of the people in the halls of the legislature at Frankfort.

As to Law and Order

Judge O'Rear said it had been charged that he had been in league with the lawless element of Kentucky, but he defied anyone to show where he had ever swayed from the right course in any of his private or public actions. He said he was unalterably opposed to lawlessness and mob violence in any form and that his one mission in life was not only to prevent crime, but to get at the root of all evil, and in this manner stamp out all manner of crime.

He said he realized the position he had taken would result in a powerful corruption fund being raised to defeat him, but that it was his purpose to continue the fight until the day of November, when he believed the people would triumph over the special interests.

Compliments Paul Moore

The Louisville Herald has the following in its issue of July 12th in an article headed "Side Lights on Politicians":

Paul Moore is always gracious and graceful, and he did not forget to make unanimous the nomination of W. H. Overby, of Henderson, for Permanent Organization. Just before that the three O'Rear committees in the Second district voted one way and the five Franks counties another way. Afterwards Moore's good manners prevailed.

Discovered Fire in Willard Hotel at Louisville. Gives Alarm and Arouses Inmates

SERIOUS LOSS NARROWLY AVERTED.

Startled from their sleep by the cry of fire and some of them almost suffocated by smoke, the 235 guests at the Willard Hotel, Fifth and Jefferson streets, were given the greatest fright of their lives last midnight. Clad only in bed clothes men and women rushed down the steps or clambered down the fire escapes. Only half awake, many wandered through the halls, unable to find the stairs. They knew there was a fire and the best thing to do was to get to a safe place.

Men wearing little more than suspenders and low-cut shoes rushed through the halls carrying empty suit cases in one hand and a pillow in the other, yelling, "Don't get excited." Women screamed and stumbled over sheets and bed covers which they had wrapped around themselves. None faltered. It was too dangerous. Even the firemen did not give any attention to the women. They were there to fight the fire.

Girl Discovers Blaze

The fire was discovered by Miss Girtle O'Bannon, daughter of A. R. O'Bannon, of St. Charles. She awoke to find her room filled with smoke. She opened the door and stumbled through the building vapors to the room of her father, adjoining. She beat upon the doors with her hands to awaken him. When Mr. O'Bannon opened the door his daughter almost suffocated, collapsed in his arms. He carried her to the landing on the floor below, and rushing to the clerk's desk on the first floor, gave the alarm. A. A. Webb, who was on duty, could hardly believe Mr. O'Bannon.

"You had better go back to bed," said Mr. Webb. "You are excited, and I think a little sleep would do you good."

By this time other guests who had been alarmed by Mr. O'Bannon's cry came rushing down the steps. Mr. Webb then notified the fire tower. Three alarms were turned in and fifteen fire companies responded to the alarm.

The fire originated on the fourth floor from a defective kitchen flue. According to Chief Lehan, the blaze evidently burned thirty minutes before it was discovered. It spread to the room George Enrich. Mrs. Enrich had been awakened by Mr. O'Bannon and reached the first floor safely. T. C. Perkins, in room 403, immediately adjoining the fire, got Hundreds of people viewed the fire from the courthouse steps, across the street from the hotel. Many guests who feared the building would burn down caught up their suit cases and fled across to the steps to watch the flames. From the standpoint of those watching the work of the firemen and the blaze, it was spectacular.

The World's Wheat

It is interesting and encouraging to those who love this country and who note its great strides in prosperity to note that out in Thomas County, Kansas, there is a farmer, so plain in his manner and so popular as to be known generally as "Jim" Fike, who last year had 12,000 acres in winter wheat and 600 acres in spring wheat; that in 1908 he cleared up $60,000 and in 1910 $75,000. It is claimed for Mr. Fike by his biographer that, whereas, when he settled out there 25 years ago he did not have $25 to his name outside the value of his quarter section of land and his "shack," he has now "the largest wheat farm in the world." Not long ago we read about the greatest corn farmer in the world out in the northwest corner of Missouri. Now we have the greatest wheat farmer in all the wide world, Russia, Argentina and the Canadas not not excepted. He uses steam and gasoline for propelling and working his great machines. In the harvest time he employs 250 men and 500 horses.

The report of the United States Department of Agriculture shows that the wheat crop of the world for 1909 was 3,024,418,000 bushels. The most prominent countries in this production were: United States 737,189,000 bushels; Russia, 711,470,000 bushels; France, 356,574,000 bushels; Canada, 168,744,000 bushels and Argentina, 161,672,000 bushels.

Kentucky Game And Fish Nearly all Gone.

Unless something is done in the near future to prevent the wholesale destruction of fish and game in and out of season, Kentucky fields will be bare of birds and the streams without fish. Even now there is but little use for gun or pole and line, and scarcity of game and fish is a constant inducement to violation of law in the shooting of game out of season and in the use of dynamite and seines.

Two things are necessary for the preservation of the game and fish. One of these is the protection of the game now existing, and the other is the stocking of streams and fields by means of fish hatcheries and game preserves.

The killing off of the game was a result of a prejudice against game laws, based on the belief that game laws were advocated solely for the benefit of city hunters, but the people now realize that good game laws are for the benefit of everybody.

The Kentucky Fish and Game Protective Association is now trying to get every hunter and fisherman in the State interested in the passage of better laws along this line. One of its plans is for the State to charge a license of one dollar per year to every man who hunts on other men's land, and to charge non-residents of Kentucky at least $10 per year for hunting in this State. Similar laws are now and have for years past been in force in every State in the Union except Kentucky and about three other States.

Under such a law a sufficient fund could be raised to employ men to see that the fish and game laws are enforced, and to provide stocks of fish and game for every field and stream in the State. Of course, if a man doesn't care a dollar's worth about hunting he wouldn't have to have a license, and the burden would fall on those who would be glad to pay so small a sum for so much pleasure.

One of the big benefits to be derived by the farmers would be the enforcement of the posting laws and keeping trespassers off of their land. Under the present conditions, a great many farmers allow themselves to be imposed upon rather than drive hunters away, but a paid game warden would have no such feelings in the matter.

In order to make the employment of wardens non-political, it is proposed to put the employment of the wardens under the supervision of a non-partisan commission of four, two to be selected by the Senate and two by the House of Representatives, who shall serve without compensation except for necessary expenses. A 50 cent bottle of Bloodline Rheumatic Liniment will last longer than the most aggravated case of sore throat. A most effective remedy for cold on chest, croup, etc. St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, drug department, special agents.

OWES HER HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, your Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house.

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls to build them up and make them strong and well. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has always helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to these wonderful medicines."

—Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R. F. D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle, and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

GRAND LEADER

Real Optimist

Brown's cheerfulness was a source of wonder and admiration to his friends. He invariably accepted everything as a wise dispensation. But then he had a large share of this world's goods, his friends argued, and nothing but adversity would shake his faith. Therefore, when a promising crop was washed away by flood the neighbors were astonished to hear him say:

"It's all for the best, I had more than my share last year."

In the winter his home burned down. To his neighbors' solicitations he calmly replied:

"The house never suited me any way; it is all for the best."

The climax came when he was in a railroad accident and both of his feet were cut off.

"You are pretty well discouraged now, ain't you, with both feet off?" asked a friend who saw him in the hospital. "Do you think this is all for the best?"

Brown nodded his head and said: "Yes, they were always cold, anyway."

Solves a Deep Mystery

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Louisville, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at all druggists.

The Diner's Viewpoint

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me a long time. The cure was permanent."—Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, Augusta, Me.

WOMEN'S WOES

Earlington Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Sick kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and much suffering is saved. Read of a remedy for kidneys one that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. R. A. Smith, Wilson St., Earlington, Ky., says: "I am so glad to publicly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys were badly disordered and the pains in my back were so acute that I could not stoop without suffering severely. The pain often extended into my sides and became more acute if I stood for fifteen minutes. I had dizzy spells and many times was forced to grasp something in order to steady myself. I also suffered from terrible headaches and many days could scarcely get out of bed. I can safely say that I spent more than one hundred dollars for medicines and doctors' treatments, but obtained scarcely any benefit. On a friend's advice I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the St. Bernard Drug Store and began their use. This remedy cured me in less than two weeks."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Old papers for sale at the Bee office.

Up to Each Individual.

It is as impossible for a man to be cheated by any one but himself as for a thing to be and not to be at the same time.—Emerson.

A lame back or shoulder puts a man on the retired list temporarily. The time will be short if BALDARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is rubbed in. It relaxes the muscles, relieves pain and restores strength and elasticity in the joints. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. Sold by St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Point of Wisdom.

Don't spend your money first and count the cost afterward. You may experience unpleasant surprises.

Right in your busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by all dealers.

Holidays in Russia.

Russia has 86 public holidays in the course of the year.

For that distressed feeling after eating, belching and nausea between meals, take Bloodline. It cures Dyspepsia by strengthening the digestive organs so that they are capable of fulfilling their functions. St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, drug department, special agents.

His One Merit.

A very stubborn man is often wrong, but seldom dishonest.

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by all dealers.

Pneumatic Tamping.

The tamping of paving stones is done now with a pneumatic tamper doing the work of the human tamper in much less time.

COLORED COLUMN.

Rev. C. C. Marks, Mrs. Marks, Mrs. John Porter and Miss Ora Nourse left Tuesday for Corydon to attend the District Conference.

Prof. Bell and the other delegates who went to Louisville to attend the Republican Convention returned Thursday morning. They say it was a great convention.

Rev. Evans returned from Brownsville, Tenn., last Saturday. He was with his father during his few days of illness which terminated in his death July 3rd.

Little James Evans returned with his father, Rev. Evans, after a six weeks stay with his grandfather.

Mrs. Queen Shelton remains very sick.

Rev. H. Amos is attending the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows at Owensboro.

Miss Otteau Couch, of Slaughter'sville, is visiting Prof. Bell's family. Mrs. Miller, primary teacher of the Evansville city school is visiting Mrs. Tom Wilson and family.

Mrs. E. B. Osborne is a delegate to the grand lodge of the Household of Ruth which convenes at Owensboro this week.

Mr. Clarence Nourse and family left Thursday for Dawson Springs where they will possibly spend the remainder of the summer.

We are glad to see little Mabel Killbrow on the streets after several weeks illness.

Garfield Anderson who has been on the sick list for two weeks is improving.

Happiest Girl in Lincoln

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and get better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." For sale by all dealers.

As to Honesty.

The man who would not trust anybody else gives himself a poor recommendation.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by all dealers.

Hard.

It is always hard for an invalid to stick to his diet when he is dining at the expense of somebody else.

Regulates the bowels, promotes easy natural movements, cures constipation—Doan's Regula. Ask your druggist for them. 25c a box.
